II RESEARCH PROMOTION

Promotion of research in social sciences is the objective for which the Council was constituted. This it does mainly by (1) keeping track of literature, researches, and trends in social science research in the country through its Survey of Research series; (2) inviting new research proposals under its research projects and other specialized research programmes; (3) granting various types of research fellowships, contingency grants to research scholars, study grants, etc., and (4) conducting seminars, training courses, and workshops for the benefit of young social scientists in India. The Council's activities in all these areas during 1993-94 were as follows:

SURVEY OF RESEARCH IN SOCIAL SCIENCES

This scheme was launched in the year 1970 to monitor the state of social science research in the country. It was felt that these surveys of researches already done would help the Council in formulating its research promotion policies and identifying priority areas of research. They were also meant to help in the teaching of social sciences in the country.

Under this programme, an advisory committee of social scientists is formed for each subject separately. The Committee identifies the contributors, who are asked to survey the literature on the subject for the stipulated period of that series. The progress of the surveys during 1993-94 is as follows:

SECOND SERIES

POLITICAL SCIENCE

Second Survey of Research in Political Science (1969-79). Professor V.R.Mehta is the Convenor of the survey. Ten reports have been received so far and out of these four reports have already been sent to our Publication Division for publishing them as monographs.

RESEARCH PROJECTS

At the beginning of the year, 412 social science research proposals were under consideration. During the year 143 proposals were received. Of the total 555 research proposals, 57 were sanctioned, 91 were rejected or recorded for various reasons, and 407 were under consideration at the end of the year.

ICSSR - ICMR JOINT PANEL ON HEALTH

The activities of the first Joint Panel on Health came to an end in early 1992. Thereafter the Panel was reconstituted and Dr. S.P.Tripathy, Director-General, Indian Council of Medical Research, New Delhi, became the Chairman.

The second panel appreciated the modest beginning that had been made during the first phase. It, however, recommended that during the second phase a much more comprehensive research programme should be undertaken so that substantial inputs could be made into the health policies and programmes to be pursued during the 9th Five Year Plan. The panel identified the following areas as the priority areas for the second phase: (i) People-based Decentralized Health Care; (ii) Impact of New Economic Policies and the Political System on Health; (iii) Health Economics and Statistics; (iv) Cultural and Institutional Dimensions of Successful Implementation of Health Programme; (v) Ecology and Health; (vi) HIV Infection and its Cultural Dimensions; and (vii) Health Education and Communication Strategies for Dissemination of Information.

In addition to the areas identified the Panel also recommended that some research in the area of psychological aspects of health and illness should be encouraged. During the second phase, it is proposed to organize a national seminar on 'The Status of Health Care in India'. The Joint Panel agreed that the proposed national seminar would concentrate on three areas for indepth investigation and discussion. The Panel also agreed to assign a status paper for each area to the following institutions:

1. 'Financing of Health Care', Foundation for Research in Community Health (FRCH), Bombay.
2. 'Implementation of Health Programmes and Policies', National Institute of Health and Family Welfare (NIHAFW), New Delhi.
3. 'Changing Patterns of Health Concerns', Indian Council of Medical Research (ICMR), New Delhi.

In addition to the status paper, it was decided that at least four supplementary papers on each theme covering the regional, programmatic, and sectoral aspects should be commissioned. Accordingly the former two institutions have identified the supplementary themes, and the contributors which are as follows:

A. Status Paper on Financing of Health Care by FRCH, Bombay. Supplementary Themes:

1. 'Relative Roles of Centre and States in Health Financing', by Dr. Sujatha Rao.
2. 'Regional Aspects of Health Financing', by Dr. Sangita Y. Kamdar.
3. 'Financing of Health: Sectoral and Programmatic Aspects', by Shri Tirtharaj P. Samant.

4. 'Current Status and Future Scope of International Coordination', by Dr. V.K. Arora.

The reconstituted panel was of the view that the statement of the panel should offer a concrete model and alternative for a people-oriented decentralized Health Policy and Health Care Programme. For preparing the draft statement the Panel constituted a committee under the Chairmanship of Dr. N.H. Antia and Dr. J.P. Gupta, Prof. Pravin Visaria, Dr. Mira Shiva, and Dr. Saraswati Swain as other members. The Committee met in October 1993 at Bombay. The report is awaited.

III DOCUMENTATION

ICSSR has a documentation unit known as National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC) located at its headquarter at, 35 Ferozeshah Road, New Delhi, to provide library and information services to social science community. This activity is virtually equivalent to what logistics is for defence and industry. For optimizing the results of research funding and research promotional activities such a service is an absolute necessity. In fact, documentation, data archival facilities, and dissemination of information through publications are the life support systems for a viable intellectual outfit in any country.

The National Social Science Documentation Centre (NASSDOC) provides regular services like literature search including bibliography compilation, document delivery, and referral services to the social scientists. The details of its activities during 1993-94 are as follows:

NASSDOC RESEARCH INFORMATION SERIES

The following mimeographed publications were brought out under NASSDOC's Research Information Series.

1. ACQUISITION UPDATE

For the current awareness of the interested scholars 'Acquisition Update' is brought out twice in a year. During 1993-94 one issue January-June 1993 was brought out and July-December 1993 is in progress. V DATA ARCHIVES

The Data Archives is involved in the development of a repository of research data to serve the social science community. Its important programmes include acquisition, systematization, organization and dissemination of data for reanalysis, compilation of National Register of Social Scientists in India, conducting training programmes in research methodology, and providing guidance and consultancy services in data processing to scholars with the active co-operation and participation of ten other research institutes.

DATA REPOSITORY

The Data Archives under this programme, is developing a repository of machine readable data by tapping different data sources. However, most of the acquired data have been those of ICSSR funded projects. Till date, out of 170 acquired data sets, 117 were funded by the ICSSR.

During the year, 60 project directors were contacted regarding the acquisition of data sets. In addition, negotiations are going on with 35 project directors for supply of data. During the year four data sets were acquired by the Data Archives. (Appendix 9).

DATA ORGANIZATION

During the year the following data sets have been organized:

1. D.S.Janbandhu, 'Evaluation of the Role of Buddhism in Enhancing the Socio-Economic and Psychological Standards of Ex-Mehars.'

INFORMATION BASE ON INDIAN INDUSTRIES

As reported earlier, the project relating to the development of a computerized Data Base on Indian Industries has been completed. This project was carried out in two phases and covers data on forty industries for the period 1970-85.

NATIONAL REGISTER OF SOCIAL SCIENTISTS IN INDIA

The compilation of National Register of Social Scientists in India is a regular programme of the Data Archives. The first volume of the Register, published in 1983, contained information relating to academic background, research interests and publications of about 7,500 scholars engaged in teaching and/or research in various social science disciplines during 1976-80.

The Data Archives is engaged in updation of this Register since 1987. At present information about 4,500 social scientists is available in this data base.

GUIDANCE AND CONSULTANCY SERVICES IN DATA PROCESSING

Under this scheme, assistance is provided to researchers in tackling problems involved in data processing. Scholars can also seek guidance in the formulation of research design, construction of research tools, preparation of code books, selection of appropriate statistical techniques and also in development of computer programmes, if necessary.

Till date, 950 scholars have been benefited by these services through various centres. Besides the Data Archives, ten other research institutes in different parts of India are extending these facilities to scholars. A list of the Institutes participating in this programme can be seen in Appendix 10 and a list of scholars who have availed these facilities during the year can be seen in Appendix 11.

TRAINING COURSES IN RESEARCH METHODOLOGY

Besides organizing training courses on its own, the Data Archives is also responsible for co-ordinating the programme of ICSSR sponsored Training Courses in Research Methodology and Data Processing. The courses sponsored under this programme are organized in different parts of India by leading research institutes and university/college departments for young scholars engaged in social science research. The initiative to conduct such training courses in Research Methodology and Computer Application in Social Science Data Analysis, is taken by institutions by submitting detailed proposals highlighting the objectives of the course and the target group, course contents and duration of the course to the ICSSR for financial support.

During the year seven training courses were conducted. The list of these courses may be seen in Chapter II.

COMPUTING FACILITIES

One of the important functions of the Data Archives is to provide a wide range of computer-aided services to the community of social science researchers. The Computer Unit in Data Archives has a mini computer SIRIUS-32 (based on MC 68020 micro processor) with four terminals, and ten IBM compatible PC/XT/ATs.

These systems are backed by a Software Support Group. The Group has developed a number of system utilities and software for various applications. Besides, a well known statistical package (SPSS/PC+) is also available for carrying out various univariate, bivariate, and multivariate analyses of data.

The computing facilities, besides being used for in-house applications, are also available to research institutes and researchers in social sciences at a nominal charge of Rs. 300 per hour of computer use.

For additional information on any of the above mentioned programmes, write to the Executive Director, Data Archives ICSSR, 35 Ferozeshah Road, New Delhi-110 001.

IX RESEARCH INSTITUTES

The Indian Council of Social Science Research provides maintenance and development grants to 27 research institutes. Sponsoring of research institutes outside the scope of the University Grants Commission has been one of the major programmes of the Council in enlarging the base of social science knowledge, improving the quality of research, and promoting an interdisciplinary perspective. These institutes constitute an important mechanism for implementing the Council's policy of dispersal of research talents and building up of research capabilities in the different regions of the country, particularly in the area where social science research is not yet well developed.

The Council has tried to implement the recommendations of the Review Committee of research institutes particularly in regard to the renewal of the faculty, upgrading of infrastructure and research facilities and encouraging areas of research beyond traditional academic boundaries. However, due to financial constraint, the Institutes could not be provided as much funds as they requested from the Council.

The Research Institutes have established close links with the scholars in the region as well as elsewhere through seminars, workshops, and training and consultancy programmes. Some of the institutes are closely associated with national and state level planning and development agencies and have thereby strengthened the links between research and policy making.

Each of the Institutes decides about its own direction of areas of research which includes a wide spectrum of subjects related to agricultural and rural development, industrial structure and growth, income distribution and poverty, employment and wages, interregional differences in levels of development, education, health, nutrition, problems of weaker sections of society including women, energy, technology, ecology and environment, and social, cultural, and institutional aspects of development. Thus, research studies have generated substantial empirical knowledge of the structure of Indian economy and society and their dynamics both at the national and regional levels.

Two hundred and twelve research projects were completed in these institutes during the year under report. The total number of ongoing studies at the end of the year was three hundred and ninety-six.

Research Institutes disseminate the results of their research studies in the form of published books and mimeographs and working/occasional papers etc. During the year, the number of books published or circulated was fifty-eight and those of mimeographs, working/occasional papers, and articles two hundred and ninety-six.

The Institutes also undertake training of young social scientists and assist fresh researchers in designing and conducting their research. To this end, doctoral fellowships have been provided to these institutes. Some of the institutes have been assisting in teaching and training programmes for M.Phil and Ph.D. students. DATED : 24-11-94

AUDIT REPORT ON THE ACCOUNTS OF INDIAN COUNCIL OF SOCIAL SCIENCE RESEARCH,
NEW DELHI, FOR THE YEAR 1993-94.

INTRODUCTORY

The Indian Council of Social Science Research (Council) was registered in July, 1969 under the Societies Registration Act, 1860. The main objectives of the Council are to review, promote, encourage assist and coordinate social science research. Audit of the accounts of the Council has been entrusted under Section 20(1) of the Comptroller and Auditor General's (Duties, Power and Conditions of Service) Act, 1971 for a period of five years from 1989-90 to 1993-94. The Council is financed mainly by grants from the Government of India. During 1993-94 it had received grants aggregating to Rs. 880.37 lakhs (Plan Rs. 390.00 lakhs and Non-Plan Rs. 490.37 lakhs).

2. STATUS OF REGIONAL CENTRES NOT SETTLED

Mention was made in the Audit Report for 1992-93 regarding non-settlement of the status of the regional centres of the Council. Under the present collaborative arrangement the payments made to the centres were being treated as grant-in-aid and accounts rendered by them were not incorporated in the annual accounts of the Council.

The Council paid grants of Rs. 39.27 lakhs to its regional centres during 1993-94. In the absence of decision about the status of the regional centres and proper depiction of expenditure in its accounts, the Receipts and Payments Accounts and Income and Expenditure Accounts of the Council did not depict a true and fair view of state of affairs of the Council. Though the Council had stated in December, 1993 that the matter had been taken up by the Review Committee yet its report was still awaited (August, 1994).

3. ASSETS

The Council had shown the following assets valuing Rs. 720.34 lakhs in the Balance Sheet as on 31st March, 1994 : -

S.No.	Nature of assets	Value
		(Rs. in Lakhs)
1.	Land and building	522.43
2.	Vehicles	2.67
3.	Furniture & equipments	94.84
4.	Library books	59.75
5.	Stock of priced publication	37.14
6.	Gifted books	3.51
		720.34

(a) Furniture & Equipments

As per assets register, the value of furniture and equipments as on 31st March, 1994 was Rs. 91.42 lakhs whereas in the Balance Sheet, the value was shown at Rs. 94.84 lakhs. The difference of Rs. 3.42 lakh between the accounts figures and Assets Register was not reconciled. Despite assurance given by the Council in December, 1993, the difference still remained unreconciled. The Council further stated in October, 1994 that efforts were being made to reconcile the difference.

(b) Library Books

(i) As on 31st March, 1994 the value of the books (thesis and journals) was shown as Rs. 63.25 lakhs including priced gifted books of Rs. 3.51 lakhs in the Balance Sheet which did not tally with the value of books shown as Rs. 63.65 lakhs in the accession register.

The Council stated in August, 1994 that the Balance Sheet reflects the actual amounts paid for books after the discount whereas the accession register shows the printed cost of the books purchased. Since this procedure is not amenable for proper check against accuracy in respect of expenditure on books. The Council should give gross cost and discount in footnote on Balance Sheet.
